Luxury overlooking a lush canopy

Inspired by the world's largest urban forest, Tree Tops Houghton will offer a premium Johannesburg living experience

WORDS AND PHOTOS SUPPLIED

Johannesburg's tree-filled skyline is set to change forever with an exciting new addition. A masterpiece of design, architecture and lifestyle, Tree Tops Houghton will further enhance this suburb's reputation as one of Gauteng's most prestigious locations.

Tree Tops will feature exquisite apartments that range from 55m² one-bedroom residences to the flagship 236m² three-bedroom penthouse. Each apartment will have imported tiles, Hansgrohe fittings and Siemens appliances.

With prices ranging from R1.65m to R9m, developer Tricolt says every detail of the design has been fastidiously laboured over to ensure that each Tree Tops residence provides an unmatched premium urban living experience.

ELEVATION

Sitting on an elevation that overlooks the lush canopy of Johannesburg, Tree Tops provides a haven from urban life, while being a mere 10-minute walk from Rosebank's collection of trendy restaurants, boutique stores and entertainment offerings.

Bridging the excitement of Rosebank with the peaceful tranquillity of Houghton, Tree Tops ultimately offers a premium living experience in the heart of Johannesburg's most vibrant district.

AMENITIES

Combining striking spaces with first-class amenities, Tree Tops will deliver unrivalled living in one of Gauteng's most exclusive addresses. In addition to top-quality amenities already available in the Rosebank precinct, Tree Tops residents will also have exclusive access to a range of premier comforts right on their doorstep.

The clubhouse at Tree Tops will feature a host of elements. These include a gym, skydeck entertainment area, lap pool and fire-lapa area.

Tree Tops is being developed by Tricolt, a South African-based property development company that operates both locally and internationally. Leading local architectural firm dhk Architects has brought the vision of Tree Tops to life.
